

Prescribing for patients travelling abroad

Malaria prophylaxis

- Antimalarials are not available at NHS expense for malaria prophylaxis and most medicines for prophylaxis against malaria are available over the counter at community pharmacies.
- If a prescription only medicine is required for prophylaxis, this will be prescribed privately, and the practice may charge for providing the private prescription.